Inquest in Batis Death Is Planned

A coroner's inquest will be held early in December at the Little Chapel of the Flowers, Walnut Creek, to determine the circumstances and possible liability in the death of Philip Batis, 30, killed November 14 under a mass of wet concrete which collapsed during vert.

Dr. Paul Fraser, county coroner, will conduct the inquest.

Before it begins, Constable Clinton Jones will choose at random from six to 12 local residents to serve on the jury.

THE JURY'S JOB will be to decide what the circumstances of death were, how the incident happened, and where, if anywhere, the fault lies.

The Little Chapel of the Flowers is located on Saranap Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

An autopsy performed on Batis' body before it was shipped to Oakland, revealed that he died of asphyxiation due to burial under large amounts of concrete.

"The death is assumed to have resulted from an accident," the autopsy report said.

THE COLLAPSE of a deck atop the culvert was the last link in the culvert between the Broadway Shopping Center and Lincoln Avenue. It happened shortly before 11 a.m. two hours after work for that day began.

Batis was inside the culvert, where the water is to flow under the deck, which will be a highway for north, south traffic.

He was waiting to load lumber being stripped from the interior sides of the culvert. The work was being done by several other carpenters and laborers, whose proximity to the side saved them from death or serious injury.

The deck crashed through wood supports, buckling a number of 6 by 6 beams before Batis could get out of the way. Fellow workers dug for him for two hours.

Maurice Uhrich, resident engineer, told The Sun that it is not unusual to have men working under freshly poured concrete, but he added that this practice will be discontinued by the Oscar Holmes Company on this job due to the effect on the workers' morale. Cause of the accident has not been determined, he said.

He said that there has been about one week's delay due to the accident. The section which collapsed will be poured again next week.

Batis was separated from his wife, who lives in Oakland. He had a small son.

Half Time Hop Is Tonight At Las Lomas

Guard Offers Men Chance to See 'Drill' Operation

Walnut Creek's National Guard unit will be host for all young men in this area who would like to see how the Guard operates during an all day drill December 8.

On that date, the regular monthly Sunday Drill, young men between 17 and 18½ and other eligible guard candidates including veterans, will have a chance to fire the M-1 rifle, Browning automatic rifle, carbine, .45 caliber pistol, and light machine gun at a drill at Wildcat Canyon in the Berkeley hills.

The men also will be served a free lunch and will take part in other Guard activities during the day.

Hosts for the event, known as "Recruit Day," is Company B, 159th Infantry, California National Guard, which has headquarters at the Armory in Walnut Creek.

Second Lt. John N. Cashman, commanding officer of Company B, said that the men were not obligated in any way to join the guard, "Recruit Day" is being held to acquaint eligible men with National Guard activities, he said.

Men wishing to take part should meet at the Armory at 1800 Carmel Road, Walnut Creek, at 10 a.m. December 8. They will be transported to and from Wildcat Canyon by truck.

Information may be obtained at Company B's headquarters at the Armory by contacting Cpl. Glenn Gleason during the week at YE 4-3876.

Kirkham Is Awarded Contract

C. F. Kirkham of Walnut Creek has been awarded the contract for the job of constructing the third Lafayette fire house, to be erected at St. Mary's Road and Hamlin Drive, it was announced by the Lafayette Fire Board last week.

Completion of Fire House No. 3 is expected by about three months from now.

At the November 5 meeting the commissioners called for bids for construction of Fire House No. 4 at Upper Valley Road and Los Arabis Drive, Paul Hammarberg is the architect. Bids will be opened at a special meeting of the board November 25, 8 p.m., at the main fire house on Moraga Road.

On November 2 at the main fire station the fire district conducted an auction of surplus equipment. Principal item was the old Model T fire engine, with the Lafayette Junior Chamber of Commerce successfully bidding for it with an offer of $315.

Jaycee President Cameron Ashby made the bid for his organization. Commissioner George Parkhill was auctioneer.

Lesson Quality Study Underway At Las Lomas

As a part of a study to determine the quality of instruction at Las Lomas High School, Walnut Creek, recent graduates are being interviewed by a team of administrators.

Students graduated from Las Lomas in 1955 and 1956 who are now enrolled at the University of California expressed their opinions to Leland Russell, principal, Kathryn Taylor, dean of girls, and James Norton, head counselor.

Comments from the group indicate that the quality of high school instruction they received was of "high calibre" and the change to college level work was relatively smooth.

Most of them felt that the amount of homework was about right or possibly could have been increased. All emphasized the importance of essay writing in high school English classes. Engineering students expressed a desire for many problems in high school mathematics, physics and chemistry classes.

Arrangements for the conference were made by the Office of Relations with Schools at the University with the aid of David Stewart, Assistant Director and former Dean of Boys at Acalanes High School.

Pupils' Walk Home to Begin On Wednesday

A practiced "yellow alert" signal shortly after 12 noon, Wednesday, will send pupils of the Walnut Creek School District walking home. The younger children will walk with the older children in a "buddy" system.

This will be the first practice drill of the 1957-58 year. District Coordinator is Bill Flynn, Parkmead vice-principal.

Murwood School pupils will leave the school grounds under the supervision of teachers at 12:30 p.m., and all other schools will begin the alert drill at 12:40 p.m.

The only non-participants will be the morning sessions of kindergarten. Other morning session classes will be prolonged for a short period, until the bells signifying the alert begin to ring.

Parents have been requested to be at home on Wednesday to receive their children as they arrive. They have also been asked to keep the children indoors for 30 minutes afterwards. The children will not return to school.

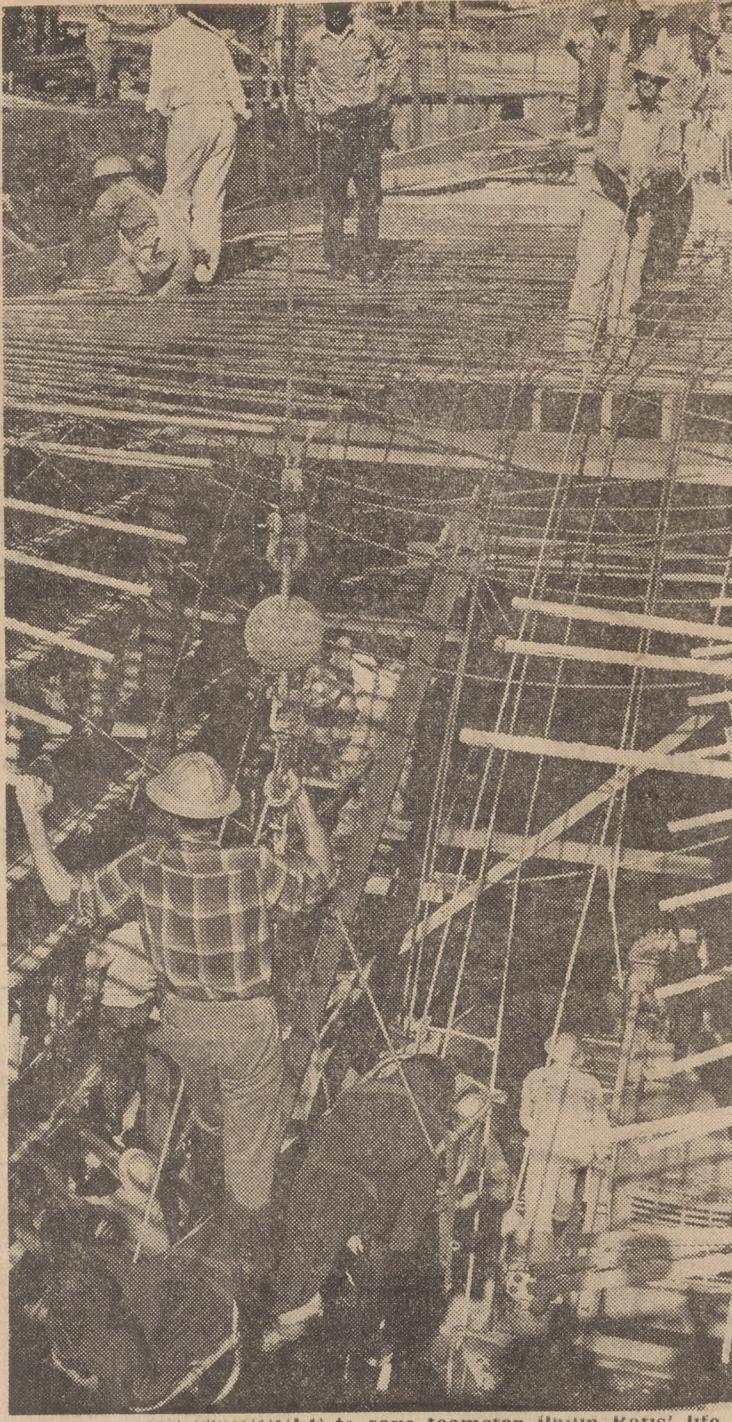

Teachers will lead the groups from the school grounds and will be met by block mothers as they enter the neighborhoods. The block mothers will see the boys and girls to their doorsteps.

The youngest, in kindergarten, first and second grades will be under the guidance of their "buddies," pupils in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades. The third graders will walk independently.

The others were near the side wall and were not seriously hurt. Oscar Holmes Company is the contractor.—Sun Photo by Harry Maroulas.

Letters to The Editor

KEEPING RURAL

Dear Editor:

Mr. Roy Tress is to be complimented for his excellent letter of last week. Anyone who is thinking fairly and objectively about incorporation these days comes to realize that incorporation is the only way to keep Orinda the unique community that it is today. This opinion is shared by all the communities down the Peninsula, as evidenced in a column written in a San Francisco paper November 10, in time for this article.

"Years ago the Peninsula's population centers, faced with horse-and-buggy county government and services" (N.B.—We're still having to deal with it here in Contra Costa) "were moved by the wish to become urban centers. They wanted busy Main Streets, they wanted home rule which would let them develop into bustling cities, they were not adverse to commercialism. . . . In time these communities have grown to the point where they are no longer country towns. . . . they've grown so big they need more land and consequently they've begun to reach out for space in the rural sections. . . . This trend has been the cause of today's rush of incorporations down the Peninsula. Unlike the thinking in the old days which motivated incorporation, the less populous centers want to incorporate so that they can stay rural and provide a cloistered existence for fewer people."

Inevitably incorporation will come to Orinda—maybe not this year or the next—but Orinda will eventually be incorporated.

But only after a few financially powerful people about our town have succeeded in breaking down all the desirable zoning restrictions, permitted 14-acre lots, brushed aside a few robberies and "petty" crimes, put a gas station on every available corner, welcomed two or three light industries—what then will there be left of rural Orinda to preserve?

STELLA BOYLE

INCORPORATION

Dear Editor:

The group that is campaigning against the incorporation of Orinda has come up with the slogan, "Leave Orinda Rural." Interestingly enough, prominent members of this group appear to be much the same ones, who, not long ago, wanted to make Orinda industrial, starting with PIE.

Is this to amuse us, or to confuse us and then use us? Anyway, there are so few haymows in Orinda that a more appropriate slogan is the "Kiss Orinda Goodbye" of several years' standing.

And, appropriately enough, this puts us in the other camp, with the incorporators. These people, to a person, as nearly as I can determine, have nothing to gain but a non-deteriorating community in which to live.

They calculate that if Orinda wants to stay on top—in the number, so to speak—instead of ending up in the county common denominator, they had better draw a boundary around ourselves, and have home rule.

This sort of situation was recognized long ago as it pertains to schools. For many years we have run our own school system, and footed the bill, so we could elect the officials and set our own standards. But, isn't the character of our community sufficiently basic and sufficiently important to warrant electing local officials to set up standards in this regard, too. Furthermore, for many years, running Orinda's schools has actually been a much bigger operation than running a city.

Next year our local school board will spend almost a million dollars of property taxes on the grade schools. This is more than three times the cost of running the proposed city—a cost which would be met, almost entirely, from gas taxes, sales taxes and other non-property taxes which the county now receives, and spends.

There are enough incorporated cities so that it is not hard to get a breakdown of figures on what it costs them to operate and to provide individual services.

The estimated budget for Orinda cannot be very wild. It shows a small increase over the present county tax rate, primarily because of a proposed increase in police. This could be cut out, however, even keeping the police, shall we reason that it's all right, say, to have voted ourselves a combined school tax of $5.30, but ghastly to contemplate a city tax of a comparatively few cents?

Of course, the other recourse is to let the county take its course. That way, Orinda can "enjoy" an era of "progress" from a quiet eddy to a whirlpool.

Ground Breaking For New Bank Soon, Says Prexy

Ground breaking ceremony will be held in Orinda later this month for the 17th office of Central Valley National Bank, according to Charles P. Partridge, Chairman of the Board and President.

This contemporary 9144 square foot building, which will cost in excess of $100,000, will contain 4573 square feet for the bank; a real estate office of 590 square feet; a furniture store with 1855 square feet, and 1384 square feet for professional offices.

The main feature of the structure will be a 700 square foot Patio Court with landscaping and a fountain, which will be illuminated at night, as the center of interest.

All main portions of the building will face the Patio Court with large glass areas and entrance doors. The street front will feature a large masonry panel across a portion of the bank, with the remainder of the bank and the other portions all glass from floor to ceiling.

Two firms who have already requested space in the new building are Downs Interiors and Wadsworth Real Estate.

WC, Concord Jaycees Drop Support of Iceorama

The Walnut Creek and the Concord Jaycees have both withdrawn the use of their names by the promoters of the forthcoming Iceorama due to their dissatisfaction with the activities of the promoters and methods employed in ticket sales.

Any further sale of tickets by the promoters in the name of the Jaycees has been forbidden.

Neither of the Jaycees organizations was aware of the manner in which the show promotion was being handled, and when it was learned that the show was to be a remedy the situation.

The Walnut Creek Jaycees, a year Board of Directors meeting November 5, forbade the use of their name by the promoters of the Iceorama. The Concord Jaycees took similar action at a meeting on November 6.

However, negotiations are now under way between the Jaycees to insure that the show goes on as scheduled and that all tickets presented will be honored. The Walnut Creek Jaycees, in a meeting with the promoters, pointed out that the promoters have had no authority to use the Walnut Creek Jaycees' name in conjunction with their solicitations.

The ice show was originally understood to be a Concord Jaycees Project. The Walnut Creek Jaycees were asked to support the project since it was being held locally in the Walnut Creek Ice Skating Rink.

When it was found to be a commercial operation with only a portion of the receipts going to the Concord Jaycees, the Walnut Creek Jaycees declined their support. Likewise, when the methods employed by the promoters were learned and when it was found that tickets were being sold as donations of the Jaycees, both Jaycees locals withdrew any authority for the promoters to use their names.

The Jaycees do not sanction promotional ventures of this type. Neither do they approve of the methods used by the promoters in this instance.

Howard Greenhalgh, your Telephone Manager in Orinda

You know, that voice of yours really gets around by telephone. We can send it under the ground or through the air. And now—if you want to phone Hawaii—your voice will go under the ocean, too! The picture above shows a sample of the new telephone cable to Hawaii. Two ships worked all summer to lay 2400 miles of this cable on the ocean floor. So now, your long distance operator can dial calls direct to the Islands. And it makes no difference what the weather's like. Thanks to the cable, your calls go through fast and clear. Whether you phone Hawaii or the corner grocery, you can bank on good, fast service.

Lots of folks I know are pretty-typing up their homes—and making things easier for themselves—by adding color telephones. When you put new phones in the rooms you use a lot, you'll wonder how you ever got along without them. Because you sure save a lot of time and steps. You can choose from nine beautiful colors, too. Why not give us a call here at your telephone business office? We'll be glad to talk it over with you.

Repair service. Ever damage your telephone? — been bothered by an irksome noise when talking? These three, Billie Lovell, Louise McNamara and Pat Jones, take your calls when you ask for help. In no time at all they will have an installer at your home to repair that phone, or a switchman checking equipment to get rid of that bothersome noise.

Just three more from the telephone team who do their utmost to make your telephoning as convenient and troublefree as humanly possible. Pacific Telephone

Newly appointed Director of Laboratory Services for the District, Milton Feldstein, told the Council about future laboratory plans and studies, with the aim of the laboratory to discover exactly what is in the air and in what quantities.

Matthew S. Walker, counsel for the District, presented a brief review of the cases before the District Hearing Board and the proceedings before the Superior Court in San Francisco.

Benjamin Linsky, Control Officer for the District, reported to the Council that conformance to Regulation No. 1 has been most gratifying. Linsky also stated: "Commercial and industrial backyard burning is very well under control as far as we know."

In praising area-wide agencies, Linsky said, "The cooperation we've had from all fire departments in the entire District in reporting and controlling open dump burning has been excellent."

PG&E Rate Hike Under Submission

The State Public Utilities Commission has taken under submission a Pacific Gas and Electric Company request for an approximate $9 million increase in its natural gas rates.

The PUC decision is expected next month, according to Ralph Bell, special representative of the PUC.

Arguments for and against the proposal were submitted at a 3 1/2-hour hearing Tuesday. The requested increase is only one part of the P G & E's application. A hearing will be held, probably in January, on a request for an $18,300,000 annual rate boost in gas rates.

Only two witnesses appeared for the company—John F. Roberts, assistant manager of the rate department, and James S. Moulton, vice president and executive engineer.

They said the $9,348,000 figure is based on a 1.96 cents increase per 1,000 cubic feet of gas which is needed to offset a price increase by the El Paso Natural Gas Co. The Texas firm supplies P G & E with most of its gas in Northern California.

County Men Inspect Eggs

The "bad eggs" are being kept out of Contra Costa County, according to a statement by County Agricultural Commissioner A. L. Seeley.

Seeley said that a large volume of "not fresh" eggs have been shipped into the county during recent months, and inspectors have been working hard visiting retail stores and ordering the return of the eggs to the places of origin.

In three areas of the county, court action was necessary to accomplish this, he added. Rejected have been 20,000 dozens of eggs as "unfit" and another 5600 as under the quality marked on their boxes.

Braumoeller Pleads Not Guilty In Federal Court

Fred Braumoeller, suspended state narcotics officer of Orinda, pleaded innocent in federal district court last Friday on four counts accusing him of selling heroin to an Oakland addict.

Judge George Harris set January 6 for trial after Braumoeller's attorney stated that the preparation of the case would take a great deal of time.

The former narcotics agent was arrested by federal agents at his Orinda home last month following a month-long investigation into his alleged narcotics violations.

He was indicted a short while later by a Federal Grand Jury on four counts of trading narcotics to an addict for a TV set, a pistol and a sports coat.

The case will be heard by a jury.

Two Armed Youths Nabbed by Police; 1 Flees, 1 Booked

A rash of central county burglaries and a $9,000 shotgun robbery in San Jose were cleared up this week through the joint efforts of the Concord Police Department and the Contra Costa Sheriff's office.

The chance investigation Tuesday night of two men by Concord Police Officer Steve Tamborske led to the arrest of Steve Brassy, 109 Oak View Road, Pleasant Hill, and the flight of Kenneth Ray Dye, 3730 Clayton Road, Concord. The 15-year old runaway was booked in Juvenile hall Wednesday by Detective Louis Skuce of the Sheriff's office.

DYE is being sought by officers of at least five counties, who have been alerted by an all points bulletin issued by the sheriff's office.

Skuce told The Sun yesterday that the sheriff's office had a good idea of where Dye was heading but, could not reveal the information at that time.

"Those kids had two 14 inch knives and two six inch knives in the car when Tamborske tried to apprehend them. There was every chance in the world that he could have been killed," said Skuce.

Brassy was quoted as saying that Dye would never be taken alive and that he would never be sent to prison by Skuce.

THE ARREST of Brassy solved the theft of a car at the Monument Bowl, burglaries at an Alamo market, Las Lomas High School, a service station in Orinda and the Concord Moose Hall.

Confiscated were 45,000 Blue Chip Stamps, clothing, the knives, spark plugs, pots and pans and wallets.

Brassy was recently released by the California Youth Authority. Questioning of the youth showed that the car, a late model, had been painted over by the youths and the license plates had been stolen from a Bella Vista junk yard.

Dye is currently free on bail on a charge of armed robbery in San Jose.

SKUCE COMMENTED that the pair perhaps did not know this but, both are being charged with first degree burglary since they armed themselves prior to their breaking into of the Standard Station in Orinda.

The count is a felony charge.

SF Symphony to Open Youth Concert Series

The Central Contra Costa Youth Society, the Ballet Celeste and the Berkeley Young People's Symphony.

The concerts are the "realization" of a dream of three local women, Mesdames James A. Perry, Charles F. B. Price, Jr. and C. L. Offen, who wished to bring good music to local children and their parents. Mrs. Perry was the first president of the organization.

Central Contra Costa Youth Concerts was incorporated in 1955 as a non-profit organization. It is operated and directed by people of the communities of Central Contra Costa. Its concerts are all held on Sunday afternoons at Los Lomas High School.

THE CONCERTS are designed for children of all ages, and are limited to one hour in length. "The cost of the season tickets has been kept at a 'bare minimum' so that an entire family will find it possible to take advantage of this wonderful cultural opportunity," said Mrs. Perry.

Each year, the concert series has begun with the world famous San Francisco Symphony, with Earl Murray, conducting.

This year, again, the Symphony will be the first of 3 concerts to be brought to you. Other attractions will be announced in the next few weeks.

The concerts which followed during the first year were Dave Brubeck and his quartet, College of Pacific Concert Band and the San Francisco Boy's Chorus.

THE FOLLOWING year, the San Francisco Symphony returned at its own request.

The Youth Concert also presented the University of California Glee Club and Treble Clef.

There will also be presented a summary report on the Club's efforts to obtain landscaping of the Contra Costa freeways.

Christmas Seals Now in Mail to Help Fight TB

More than 88,000 letters containing Christmas Seals are being mailed by the Contra Costa Tuberculosis and Health Association as the Christmas Seal drive begins in the county this week, according to George W. Wacker, 1957 Christmas Seal Sale Chairman.

The purchase of these seals presents an opportunity to join in the fight to control tuberculosis in Contra Costa County.

The Christmas Seal drive is in its fifty-first year combating the nation's number one infectious disease killer. The Contra Costa Tuberculosis and Health Association is dedicated to a year round program aimed to prevent the spread of tuberculosis. Health education, medical research, case finding, rehabilitation of tuberculosis patients, the tuberculosis testing program and chest x-rays at the county hospital are all part of this program.

The annual sale of Christmas Seals throughout Contra Costa County is the only financial support of the Contra Costa Tuberculosis and Health Association, Wacker said.

Public Relations Workshop to Get Panel Speakers

Evan Peters, San Francisco public relations consultant, will discuss "Who Is Your John Q. Public?" tonight at the first Public Relations Workshop of "professionals" and newspapers men at East Contra Costa Junior College.

Co-sponsors are the junior college district and the Contra Costa Press Club.

The session will begin in the afternoon at 2:30 and will be opened by Al Martinez, Press Club president.

Dwight Bentel, head of the journalism department, San Jose State College, will discuss changing public relations techniques.

Points of view of the press and of those who work in the public relations field will be exchanged at two panel sessions.

The press panel will include Neil Diskson, Pittsburg Post Dispatch editor; Dick Osborn, associate editor for the Sun papers; Lyman Stoddard, Jr., associate publisher of the Walnut Kernel and Robert W. Lee, San Francisco News editorial man.

The public relations panel will include Mrs. Mary Ericsson, Pittsburg Community Hospital; M. M. Snodgrass of Richmond; John W. Fern of San Francisco, and Frank Crosby of Oakland.

Evan's, the night session speaker, will fly from Los Angeles where he has been on a special assignment to make the talk.

A former chain-store public relations man, he had eight years managerial experience with a national advertising and public relations firm before joining the Russell Pierce and Company as an officer five years ago. He is an honorary life member of the San Francisco Advertising Club.

Polio Clinic Is Wednesday At Highland

"Now is the time for everyone under forty years of age to be immunized against polio", Dr. Elvira Goettsch, assistant health officer said.

The next Health Department immunization clinic for the Walnut Creek area will be held at the Health Department, 2363 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Highland Building, from 2 to 5 p.m., on Wednesday.

In addition to polio vaccinations, immunizations for diphtheria, tetanus, whooping cough and smallpox will also be made available to children.

Children 13 and under must be accompanied by a parent or guardian, and those 14 to 21 must have the signed consent of their parent or guardian. Adults may receive polio, tetanus and smallpox immunizations.

These services are best obtained from one's own physician. Health Department clinics are maintained to serve those who would have difficulty in obtaining these services privately.

Shop at home and save.

'Twelve Angry Men' Plays Tonite, Tomorrow at Col.

"Twelve Angry Men", a tense jury room drama by Reginald Rose, will be presented at the LeFevre Theater on the St. Mary's College campus by the student players tonight and tomorrow evening.

Curtain time is 8:15. The story revolves around one juror's determination to uphold the judicial point of "reasonable doubt" in a murder case where prejudices, temperaments, and personal interests have nearly sealed a young man's doom.

The lead role of the quietly courageous juror No. 8 is played by Darryl Gunther, a senior from Woodland, California. Gunther has turned in exemplary performances for the group in the past as the person in Henrik Ibsen's "Ghosts" and the prosecutor in "The Caine Mutiny Court Martial."

Other important parts have been given to Terry Breen, a junior from South Gate; Paul Ford, Dennis Kelley, a Los Angeles sophomore. They will portray jurors 3, 4, and 10, respectively.

The panel discussion will be led by Dr. Fred E. Heitman of Lafayette.

There will also be presented a summary report on the Club's efforts to obtain landscaping of the Contra Costa freeways.

Child Molestation . . . What Can We Do About It?

"Why doesn't the district attorney's office prosecute these cases to the limit of the law?"

That was the lead sentence on a front page news story in The Sun recently dealing with child molestation.

The question was asked by Dr. Richard Fickel of Walnut Creek, but we might — each of us — well ask the same question.

Why aren't child molestation cases prosecuted by the district attorney's office?

One reason may very well be that the district attorney and his office simply isn't interested.

THERE IS GOOD reason to think that this is the case in light of his actions. For example, when invited — months ahead — to speak to the Mt. Diablo PTA on the subject, District Attorney Francis Collins failed to appear, sending a young deputy district attorney in his place. His excuse? He said he had to attend the induction of Thomas Fraga as superior court judge.

This problem of child molestation is a complex one, with its roots buried in sexual deviation and unconventional behavior. It is certainly a problem of law enforcement, and stricter law enforcement is needed.

It is also a problem for the parents, who must instruct their children in the proper behavior, warn them against speaking to strangers, etc.

IT IS EQUALLY necessary for some parents to be strong enough to be willing to sign a complaint if their child suffers at the hands of a molester — and this is not an easy thing to do, because it means putting the child through what may possibly be a very difficult time. It may mean taking a complete look at some of our legal procedures, and possibly considering certain revisions to protect the youngsters who find themselves in such a position.

But most of all — most important — is good prosecution under the existing laws.

Parents are frequently urged to settle for reduced charges when they complain of the actions of a child molester to the district attorney's office.

THE EXPLANATION of this is that there is frequently a lack of "corroborative evidence" that would make prosecution on a child molesting charge extremely difficult, if not impossible, so the defendant is tried on such a charge as contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

But this reduced charge carries with it — if the person is convicted — only a light sentence, and his record contains no mention of sexual deviation.

The result is that he is soon free to pursue his old practices, and this sometimes leads to horrible and grizzly results.

What is to be done?

Parents and schools, and the law enforcement agencies, must work together to fight this problem. A thorough understanding of the problem must be arrived at, and an adequate procedure set up that will ensure the protection of our children.

AND THIS procedure should have the power of removing the "sick" individual from society for the length of time necessary to provide for rehabilitation, if possible.

But in the meantime, we must continue from day to day. And it will take the cooperation of everybody to reach a clearer understanding.

This includes prosecution, to the limit of these cases whenever possible.

Want the Local Lowdown Report Shows All 'Normal'

By PAT PENDING

Well, I was going to treat you readers with some further laughs about the banking system but I'm supposed to keep this column on local events.

It so happens that nothing spectacularly stupid has happened in the county this last week — which is unusual, to say the least.

No agency has reported any kick-backs. The Planning Commission is still planning to, someday, start planning. The Grand Jury hasn't retired anybody this last week on a fat pension, which is somewhat an improvement.

Everything seems to be about normal. Pinball machines are still multiple play in certain sectors, and sections of the county highways are still being torn up and left that way.

And, I guess, the D.A. and his assistants are still using county secretaries and county offices to conduct their private law practices. And the California Water Company is planning to observe a moment of silence this week because of the recent rain.

Yep, everything is just about normal!

JUST BECAUSE I suspect that more than several local residents will be journeying to Palo Alto tomorrow, I believe that the following is of local interest.

This is Big Game Week here in the Nawth. Regardless of past records, Cal and Stanford will play a real football game. After all, this game is a traditional. I predict that the Golden Bear will pick up all the marbles.

SEVERAL LOCAL real estate salesmen have been complaining about "tight" money. I submit that there is no such thing as "tight" money.

Have you ever had a Federal Reserve note stagger up to you, hiccup, and croak:

"I'm tight?"

There's no such thing as "loose" money, either.

Take a dollar bill out of your pocket and shake it. (The dollar bill — not the pocket.)

Did you hear anything rattle?

By the way, have you seen "Dognik" lately? Is it still up there? I should have thought the first dog in outer space would have been an Airedale!

Dr. Cobb Given Safety Oscar

Dr. B. Otis Cobb, president of the Contra Costa Council, received a "Safety Oscar" award, November 14 at an awards dinner meeting of the Northern California Industrial Safety Society held at the Claremont Hotel in Oakland.

Some of the major accomplishments achieved by Dr. Cobb since 1955 included enlarging the scope of public safety education in Contra Costa County, presiding over annual public meetings and interim affairs. He coordinated the safety programs in home, school and traffic phases. He also addressed many parent-teacher and medical groups on accident prevention.

Organizing fund raising drives and acquiring office space for the first county wide safety headquarters were other achievements. He directed part time

Letters to The Editor

THANKS

Dear Editor:

On behalf of the County employees we would like to thank you very sincerely for your article, "Hats Off to County Workers", in the Staff Corner of November 8 written by Bob Rapida.

It is so seldom that we get a bouquet of this sort, that we are quite breathless about it. We have asked your paper for permission to reprint it in the next edition of our Association's magazine, The County Employee.

Again, our deepest thanks.

TRAIN YOUR DOG!

Dear Editor:

Since there is such a high mortality rate amongst dogs in the county, I am writing this letter in the hopes that it may avert some of the losses.

This week it was my sad and unfortunate experience to run over someone's pet and I think I will perhaps be as long as the owners who loved their animal dearly, getting over it. This was a case of an untrained dog, naive to the ways of wheels — just a pup, not quite a year old, who apparently had survived THIS long only by chance.

We take time to train our children in the ways of walking along a road, yet many of us neglect to train the canine member of our household in the danger that lurks at every curve or vision-obscuring grade in the country road. Many a dog has dozed asleep in his own driveway never to awaken again, the victim of service and delivery trucks. This is a common occurrence with small dogs "built low to the ground."

At times, to avoid dogs running AT and INTO my car (a woeful way they play), I have swerved or stopped short, jeopardizing myself as well as the children riding with me. Obedience and training courses are offered several places in the county; even a good book can help! If YOURS is a young dog whom you hope to cherish for the rest of his days, please save heart-sick and train your pet so that YOUR heart will not be broken, too. It's tough on too many people. And little dog, though a total stranger, will NOT soon be forgotten.

Name withheld on request.

FOR ORINDA CITY

Dear Editor:

It is quite evident that our area will be subject to rapid change in the immediate future.

With growth will come greater and greater needs, which for the local taxpayer means additional district taxes.

Our high per capita wealth is being diffused throughout the county, instead of meeting the specific needs of our area.

In light of the inevitability of increased taxation, it would seem desirable to have a local city administration, aware of the requirements of our own Orinda community.

Congressman Tells Office Hours

Congressman John F. Baldwin, of Martinez, announced today that he has been holding special office hours in Antioch, Pittsburg, Walnut Creek, Concord and Martinez, and will hold office hours in Richmond. No appointments are required.

"I am available throughout the fall months by appointment to discuss federal problems or federal legislation in my Richmond or Vallejo Congressional offices. However, I find it is more convenient for many people to talk with me in their own communities," Congressman Baldwin said. He announced that he will be at his Richmond congressional office, 447 10th Street, 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 5 p.m., next Tuesday.

Under The Sun

Here Is a Problem for Kids, Parents, Everyone

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Story in The Sun, several months ago: Bullet from .22 rifle is shot into local home, narrowly missing a baby in a crib!

Stories in Bay Area papers in recent weeks: three children killed in separate gun accidents — shot by persons thinking the guns were unloaded.

Stories in the Sun: B-B guns used on windows of stores, schools, homes.

A specific incident

Late last week Mrs. LaVerne Kerns phoned me to discuss a problem in her neighborhood — young boys with B-B guns. Standing in her porch, a shot had gone over her head. As a past president of a parents' organization and a very nice person as well, Mrs. Kerns was not raving or ranting about "neighborhood boys or their parents." As a matter of fact, the Kerns' enjoy hunting and guns. They have an eight-year-old Steve who hunts with them.

Mrs. Kerns' approach was constructive. First and foremost, she emphasizes that before youngsters are allowed to handle guns, they should be carefully instructed. She pointed out that carefully planned courses are given from time to time.

I agree 100 per cent. I do think, however, that not nearly enough classes are available. More should be offered by our youth groups, schools, sportsmen clubs, recreation programs. And when they are scheduled, please let The Sun know so we can give them strong publicity.

Let's get mad . . . ?

Furthermore — let's not be as constructive as Mrs. Kerns. Ten or eleven-year-old boys (or even those 15) are simply not mature enough to go out alone and shoot guns — in either populated or unpopulated areas. Parents should not allow this and they, of course, are more guilty than the youngsters if anything happens.

Besides, the law is very clear on this point. Just double-checked it with Inspector Norman Wilson of the sheriff's department:

The law (county ordinance) is that any juvenile under 16 (that is, 15 and younger) has to be accompanied by a parent or responsible adult when the youth is handling a gun.

Boys 16 and older are supposed to have had enough training to be able to handle a gun carefully.

(All this applies to all types of firearms, from a B-B gun up to a rifle.)

Furthermore, everybody, including adults, is supposed to be careful.

Well, enough about guns and the youngsters. How about guns and the oldsters? Don't our adults need instruction, too?

Another specific incident

See for yourself. Here is a note I just received from Mrs. Kerns:

"Since I talked with you about guns, we've had a terrifying thing happen to us.

"Saturday morning we were hunting pheasants on a pheasant club near Willows when a hunter from S.F. did not observe the most important safety rule of them all — never shoot toward another hunter. This man shot at a bird flying directly toward LaVerne and Steve. Several shot hit them — two shot hit Steve in the lower left jaw and tearing upward through his face stopping just below the jaw bone.

"The doctor who released Steve from the hospital in Willows, said we were most lucky that an eye (or two) was not destroyed since the gunner was so close to him and the shot so near that portion of the face.

"Here we are — Steve taking and passing the Safety course (the only 8-year-old to pass, I understand) and observing all the rules in the book, then a man who has hunted all his life gets greedy and fires without thought. The man knew we were there as he had just passed in front of us.

"Sincerely,
Lee Kerns"

It's Strictly for the Birds . . .

This column is strictly for the birds. That is not intended as a derogatory remark as to the quality of the matter used to fill this space — it is a comment on the subject matter.

Of course, you can always make up your own mind as to how to interpret that opening sentence.

To our subject matter — we happen to live in an area that is surrounded by trees and weeds. The trees give us little trouble, and by working hard at developing a special mental attitude, the weeds also give us little (mental) trouble.

BUT THESE various forms of flora are just the ticket for our little feathered friends, bless their souls.

Now, I think birds are the greatest, and if you ever want an afternoon of hysterical laughter, just visit the bird house at the San Francisco Zoo. They've got specimens of creatures that couldn't exist!

But being kindly disposed toward our feathered friends while admiring them at the zoo, and being kindly disposed at about 6 a.m. are two different colored horses, to mix our metaphors.

There is one particularly obnoxious old Coot, incidentally, he's a Quail, but that is what he's saying, and it is not encouraging at that hour.

ONE CAN ONLY roll over in the sack and mutter back, "If you're so smart and alert, why aren't you rich."

But the damage is done. You lie there thinking about "Get With It," and pretty soon, there's nothing to do but get up (in a vile mood) and then your day is past resurrection — all because of a Quail who insists that you "Get With It."

On the other hand, there is some feathered idiot who sings only three notes — da, da, da — on a descending scale. They're not bad notes, and you have to give him credit for hitting the same three each time.

But it's just like the Chinese Water Torture. At first you hardly notice it. Then it gets boring. Then it drives you mad.

Maybe this is the feathered moron who is the object of the Quail's "Get With It." If so, he should certainly take the advice, because, although I've never met him, he sounds like a real square.

IT IS IMPOSSIBLE to guess what our feathered friends think of Beethoven or Puccini, and maybe we give them as much trouble with our music as they provide with theirs.

I suppose there's no way of finding their opinions on this subject. Maybe we keep them awake at night (I presume they retire earlier than I, because they certainly get up a heck of a lot earlier.)

If they want to go around giving unsolicited advice, I can't do much about it. I just wish they would keep it to themselves between the hours of 6 and 8 a.m.

Suburbia is a great place, and we live in a beautiful area.

And as I said, this column is for the birds . . .

On The Lighter Side

by INA BLIESNER
YE 4-3818

Remember the "olden days" when traveling was, for the most part, restricted to summer vacation times? And, it seems to me, most vacations were spent "at the beach" or "at the lake." Not so, necessarily, today!

For instance: Mrs. Robert Finley, who is popular Nora (Mrs. Robert) Cook's mother, is "wintering" in Europe having taken the "Polar Route" via a TWA "Jet Stream." Mrs. Finley is visiting her other daughter who is stationed in Paris. She is in the Army's "Craft Specialty Department."

And our traveling contingent . . .

They have already visited in Brussels; plan to spend the Thanksgiving holidays in England and will be at the Riviera for Christmas. Upon her return, towards the end of January, Mrs. Finley will join her husband in New York and they plan to go on to Norfolk, Virginia, where they will stay with their son and his family.

Vesta and Carl Rasmussen have (with regrets) returned from a wonderful trip to the Islands. They headquartered at the fabulous "Hawaiian Village"—but visited such islands as Kauai, Maui, Oahu and Hawaii—loving every minute of their tours. The high spot of the vacation was Carl's landing a Blue Marlin off the Kona Coast. It was six feet 11 inches long and weighed 143 pounds! They can PROVE it.

A GAY DINNER PARTY was held at the home of Bernice and Dave Loofbourrow in Walnut Creek to celebrate the homecoming of Kitty and "Mike" (E. W.) Felegy, who had been away for many weeks. Mike is a mining engineer for the health and safety division of the Bureau of Mines of California and Nevada.

The MAIN purpose of their trip was to attend an international meeting (associated with the U.N.) in Geneva—where representatives from almost every country in the world were present. But, naturally, they made a few "little" stops here and there—such as in Lisbon, Madrid, Zurich, Cologne, Amsterdam and London.

Kitty and Mike are quite the authorities on airlines by now—having flown on these lines: Swiss, Dutch, Portuguese, Spanish, Belgian, British-European, and, of course, American.

To get back to the afore-mentioned party. The Felegy's neighbors banded together and served a delicious turkey dinner. Others there were Mabel and Jim Weston, Nannette and Joe Briley and Helen and George Pitman who had recently returned from several weeks in Honolulu. The Pitmans went over and returned on the Lurline.

Light meters, cameras and Carmel

The Homer Feys, the Marvin Hennes and the Wayne Finns spent last week-end at Carmel—THE perfect place for relaxation. As the men are "camera bugs," however, they kept pretty much on the go looking for new angles along the scenic drives—with the wives, of course, doing a little directing.

Saturday evening was spent dining and dancing at one of the well known restaurants in that lovely town. Gladys and Homer Feys and their charming daughter, Donna, have really been on the "go." They recently returned from an interesting trip during which time they visited their families in Iowa.

Then they spent two of three days in Chicago where they were entertained by the Oakland Tribune's (Homer is the Tribune's Automotive Editor here) representative.

On to Detroit where they were royally treated by the Edsel company and had the pleasure of driving a new Edsel home.

LOVELY SHARON EGGERTS was the guest of honor Tuesday night at a shower given by the Mesdames Feys, Hennes, Finn and Mrs. L. R. Bryan. Sharon (who has the most BEAUTIFUL voice) will be married to Lt. J.G. Howard Patrick.

Another shower was given by a neighborhood group in Sleepy Hollow, Orinda, at the home of Dotty (Mrs. Howard) Gardner. The honor guest was Bess (Mrs. Jim) Kral who is moving, with her family, to an apartment on Lake Merritt. The decorations were planned around a "Missing You" theme—with sheet music to that effect being used prominently.

Bess was not surprised with the luncheon—but was MOST surprised with the gifts. Among those wished her well were Molly Gravelle, Elva Rust, Dorothy Parnham, Marilyn Kaufman, Ruth Riddle, Claire Schnitler, Dorothy Rudelson, Lael McCormack, Evangeline Winkler, Marge Starkman, Gen Cantrill, Virginia Fish and Naomi Leonard—who was "out" for the first day since the arrival of a baby boy the week before.

Lovely fashions, friends and good food

Lunching and enjoying the new, new fashions at the Herrick Memorial Holiday Fair in the Garden Room at the Claremont were Mabel Buchanan, Kay Slaughter, Mary Jane Caldwell, Betty Fulgham and Mary Niederkruger.

And that last name brings to mind how proud Mary and Elmer Niederkruger must be of their son, Don, who is a Technical Sergeant. He recently received a commendation ribbon for meritorious service during his assignment as Chief of the Radar Maintenance Section for his Squadron.

OTHER PROUD PARENTS are Captain and Mrs. E. K. McLaren of Orinda who's son, Jim, is a "Pleb" at Annapolis. Captain McLaren is stationed in Korea for a year so it will be with very special delight that Mrs. McLaren will welcome her son home for the holidays. Jim is looking forward eagerly to seeing his old buddies from Acalanes High. His mother is planning a lengthy stay in the Island sometime in 1958.

Jaycees and their guests danced from 10 'til 2 Saturday evening at their annual holiday formal.

The affair was held in the Garden Room at Castlewood Country Club and was preceded by many pre-dance cocktail parties and buffet suppers.

The club room was attractively decorated in gold, white and brown with snowflakes scattered on the windows and tables centered with pine cones, gold leaves and white tapers. Shimmering star mobiles hung from ceiling lights and gilded arrangements were scattered throughout the room.

Chairmen were Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Sanders, 391 Cordelia Way, Walnut Creek. Mrs. Sanders greeted her guests at buffet supper in a coral gown of lace and tulle and wristlet corsage of orchid.

Mark Golden Anniversary

Next Wednesday will mark the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Hopp of 1079 West Holly Drive, Walnut Creek. They were married on that date in 1907 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bartels, in Oakland, and they lived in that city for the next 40 years.

Mr. Hopp, a native San Franciscan, worked for Standard Mill and Lumber Company, Oakland, for 22 years and is now a retired cabinetmaker. He is a past president of Claremont Parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West and a member of Fortitude Lodge of the Masonic Order.

Clara Hopp has been a member of the Eastern Star. The Hops have made their home in Walnut Creek for the past 10 years.

They are the parents of two daughters, Mrs. W. B. Sweeney and Mrs. Peter Jansen, both of Lafayette, who are honoring them with a reception for 50 family members and friends on Sunday at the home of Mrs. Jensen.

They met three years ago in Honolulu during the Christmas holiday season. Mr. Schwab was serving in the Navy then. The marriage will be held February 2.

Glitter, Gayety Highlites Of Gala Soroptimist Fete

Glitter and gaiety, a traditional part of the Yuletide season, comes early this year as members of Soroptimist International prepare to greet their friends at "Tinsel Time," their way of opening the holiday season. The hours of 5 to 7 have been selected for tomorrow afternoon's event.

The gala soiree will feature a tasting of fine California wines supplied by two leading vintners, Gigardi Wineries of Martinez and Beringer Brothers of Napa Valley.

Eugene Morosoli of the California State Department of Agriculture's Wine Advisory Board has coordinated arrangements with the vintners.

Combined with the wine tasting to make this one of the more outstanding events of the social season will be background music by two lovely ladies, Mrs. Charles Compton and Mrs. Charles Levine. Candlelight will glow and the silvery sparkle of tinsel will add to flower arrangements to further the holiday feeling.

All proceeds from the donation of $1 a person will be used by Soroptimists for their many philanthropic activities which include scholarship awards on the high school and junior college levels; aid to handicapped children, needy families and the aged patients at the County Hospital.

Area residents have been most generous in their contributions to add to the success of the affair. Anne Heisler, Club president, states. Use of the Arthur Murray Dance Studios at 2750 Willow Pass Road, Concord, has been donated for the festivities.

Cheese will come from the local office of Golden State, Ltd.; National Biscuit Co. will give crackers through its representative, William Brewer; tickets have been donated by Concord Graphic Arts; a piano will come from Brown's Music Center.

Because no tickets may be sold at the door, local Soroptimists are now contacting their friends and interested persons may obtain tickets prior to the party from any Soroptimist or from the following committee members: Virginia MacFarlane, Florine Yonge, Blanche Perkins, Dora Friedrich, chairman, or Ann Pleasant, coordinator of ways and means.

Towhee Tinsel Tea Plans Are Formulated

The 32 members of Towhee Unit of Mt. Diablo Therapy Center met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Mervyn O'Donnell, 28 Deodora Way, Walnut Creek, to complete plans for their sixth annual exhibit-tea, now known as "Towhee Tinsel Time."

Tuesday, December 3, the Diablo Country Club will provide the setting for this glamorous affair which has become a festive tradition of the local Yuletide season.

Busy chairman Mrs. Samuel Bradbard is especially enthusiastic over the work of Mrs. E. E. Wanous who is in charge of the preparations of the delicious persimmon puddings which are served and sold yearly at the affair.

FORMER home economics major Mrs. Wanous has developed an improved recipe and plans to satisfy the demand for this unique delicacy by increasing the amount of puddings for sale. They will be sold as usual in decorated gift packaging, either in copper molds or aluminum throw-away tins.

An added food item this year will be gift wrapper containers of candied walnuts, prepared under the supervision of Mrs. Howard Hillis.

Bazaar chairman, Mrs. William McLaren is offering Christmas stockings, exquisite tree decorations, felt lapel pins, memo-boards, hand puppets, glittering silver wreaths, tabletrees, door swags, and sandal holders among other items, while Mrs. Robert Leland's sewing committee has a fetching assortment of party aprons.

MRS. FRANK CASHIN, assisted by Mrs. Charles Rodier, is creating the three lovely tea tables from which guests will be served and Mrs. Alan Scott will supervise the serving.

Mesdames Donald Priewe and Robert Cuenin are decorating the entrance and bazaar tables and Mrs. Ferris Fain is securing the lovely prizes.

Exhibit chairman Mrs. William McGuire promises 28 gorgeous table settings and table trees to be displayed by contributing philanthropic and civic organizations. Pouring at the tea tables will be honored guests Mesdames Arch J. Campbell, E. R. Rippingham, James Simonds, Alfred Marchetti, A. R. Blesner and the following unit presidents of other Therapy groups: Mesdames A. H. Thompson, James Seaman, C. Wadsworth White, A. N. Warburton, L. Robert Martin, F. E. Forsberg, Edward Lazzarocchi, Jack Kennedy, Howard Burk, William H. Evans, Theron Prentiss Jr., and Herbert Phillips.

Donna White, Kenneth R. Jones Join Married Set

Impressive ceremonies at the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church November 2 united Donna Susan White and Kenneth Robert Jones, both of Walnut Creek.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Jones left for Las Vegas for their honeymoon, and will be at home in the lake district in Oakland.

Rev. James Upshaw performed the rites. Sharon was given away by her father. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. White of 210 Buena Vista Avenue, Walnut Creek.

She wore a French imported Taffeta gown, princess front with full flowing skirt, sabrina neckline trimmed in alencon lace, iridescent sequins and seed pearls.

Matching re-embroidered lace at hipline swept into a full train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was attached to a cap of imported peau de soie trimmed with alencon lace, sequins and small seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and carnations with cascading stephanotis.

Crestview Group Meets at School

Regular meeting of Senior Crestview Womens Club of Pleasant Hill was Wednesday at Fair Oaks School library.

Canned goods will be brought by all members to be collected and two baskets made up for needy families in the area for the holidays.

GUIDE DOGS for the Blind will benefit from the proceeds of a doll being awarded by Tau Nu Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi. Displaying the doll in Pleasant Hill are Mrs. W. J. Tyacke, vice president, and Mrs. O. D. Anderson, ways and means chairman. —Sun Photo by Jim Guthrie.

Hadassah Group Stages Meeting

The Hadassah Medical Organization was the theme when Diablo Valley Chapter of Hadassah, Women's Zionist Organization of America, convened for a regular meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. Leo Brewer, 15 Vista del Orinda, Orinda.

After the business meeting conducted by Mrs. John Cronin, President, a short talk on the historical and biblical background of Jewish interest in medical welfare was given by Mrs. Irvin Schwarcz.

Mrs. Ezekiel Freed spoke on Hadassah Medical Organization in order to familiarize the members with its many functions. This Organization in Israel has embarked upon an intensive research program to benefit not only the people of Israel but all mankind. As a result of Hadassah's pioneer work in the field of medicine, Israel today has the highest health standard of any country in the middle East and comparable to that of any country in Europe.

Diablo Artists Will Hear of Wood Blocks

In 1936, Cecil Tilton, who is to be guest speaker for the Diablo Art Association on November 25, became acquainted with Hireshi Yoshida while with the occupation army in Japan. Yoshida was considered to be one of the great woodblock print makers of all time, especially known for his use of color, skill in sharp delineation of detail and for his paper pigmentation. During his lifetime, (1876-1950) he created 255 woodblocks, several of which requiring as many as 19 cuts for the finished product.

Tilton became interested in Yoshidas work and since 1936, has collected 236 of the 255 existing prints. His topic will be "The Life and Works of Hireshi Yoshida." He will exhibit a number of the exquisite prints and the woodblocks necessary to create them.

All members are urged to attend this, the final meeting of the year, since election of officers will take place. The meeting begins at 8 p.m. and the public is cordially invited. Coffee gallery

Last Second Score By Dons Decides Traditional Battle

The Pittsburg Pirates had things pretty much their own way last Friday night as they rolled to a comfortable 61-7 win over the hapless Panthers of Antioch.

Pittsburg scored in the opening quarter then added a pair of TDs along with a pair of conversions to make it 20-0 at the half.

ANTIOCH HIT the scoreboard for their lone seven. Pitt tallied twice and converted once in the third quarter. It was all Pitt in the final period as they racked up four more touchdowns and made good on four conversion tries to wind the evenings play up at 61-7.

It kept Pitt undefeated in league play and in sole possession of the 1957 D.V.A. grid title.

In a wild and woolly last minute finish the Acalanes Dons pulled one out of the fire last Friday night when they played host to, and defeated, their arch rivals, the Las Lomas Knights 7-2.

The winning T. D. came with but 55 seconds on the clock after the Dons had trailed 2-0 from the half.

LAS LOMAS threatened in the opening half going once to the Don seven after recovering one of Acalanes' seven bobbles in the course of the game.

Six were recovered by the Knights while the Dons retaliated by taking over on three of four Las Lomas fumbles.

The Knight's drive fell short when on the fourth down, on the seven, a pass dropped incomplete.

The safety came when with five seconds to go in the half a long Las Lomas aerial was intercepted by the Dons defensive half Dave Bojarsky who caught the ball close to the goal line and wound up over it when tackled by end Clark Ransome.

That gave Las Lomas a 2-0 edge and it looked mighty big until very late in the fourth quarter when the Dons took over on their own 41 and went the distance in 13 plays to tally the winning TD.

Stu Busby the Acalanes burly halfback drove around right end for 20 yards and then a pair of 15 yard passes from quarter Mike Kritscher to end Dwayne Stults put the Dons in scoring territory.

THE BIG BREAK came when Kritscher tossed a pass to flanker Dave Bojarsky and interference was ruled on this one. Fifty-five seconds were left when Kritscher sneaked it over and Busby made it 7-2.

The win put the Dons in fourth place in final league standings with the Knights wound up as the number two club.

In the statistics department, Acalanes netted 172 yards on the ground to 123 for the Knights. In first downs it was the Dons 12-8. Aerial work was edged to Acalanes with eight completions on 14 tries for 81 yards against one completion for 14 yards on 12 tries for the Knights.

HALFBACK DAVE BOJARKSKY takes off on a 20 yard game in the Acalanes - Las Lomas game Friday night as guard Art Butcher-elder throws a key block on Knight end Clark Ransome. Britt Williams (46) moves in on the play. After the game ended with Acalanes on the top of a 7-2 tilt, Dwayne Stults, Phil Condit and Bojarsky carry Acalanes Coach Jack Carhart off the field. ## Little Panthers Claw Miramonte 20-6 in JV Finale

By DIXON FARMER

Miramonte's J.V. football team ended its season with a 20-6 loss to host Pacifica High in West Pittsburg. Eight costly fumbles, seven of which were picked up by Spartans, proved to be the downfall of the Matadors November 14.

The first scoring play of the game was brought about by a fumble. Recovering on the 29, the Spartans tried an off tackle slant that netted four yards. The next play was a quarterback option (lateral run) with the quarterback scoring the Touchdown. The 2-4-7 was successful (7-0). One Spartan touchdown, a 70 yarder had already been called back when they scored their second of the contest.

Marching 69 yards, the Matadors fumbled on the Pacifica 7. From here using the very successful option again, Pacifica's Q.B. rolled around the right side and didn't stop rolling until he was 93 yards away, in the Matador end zone. The conversion was again good. (14-0).

It was here that fullback Bicky Clifford grabbed the kickoff and smashed 76 yards to a score, aided by terrific blocking. This effort went in vain as it was called back due to a clipping penalty. Two plays later a Pacifica tackle, adding salt to the wounds of the Matadors, intercepted a pass from 30 yards out and lumbered into the end zone untouched.

Miramonte got its only score when end Marc Littlejohn intercepted a Spartan Pass and spun into the end zone from 47 yards out. Tim Crawford's boot hit the crossbar. The final score was 20-6.

This game completed the season for the Matadors with a win-loss record of 2-4-2.

Las Lomas Cagers Turn Out Strong For Coach Callow

The Las Lomas basketball team opened the 1957-58 hoop season December 3 when they took to the court for a pair of afternoon games starting at 3-15.

The varsity squad under coach Merrill Callow has been cut down to 20 players ten of whom will be the A squad while the other 10 will make up the JV team with a schedule of its own.

Plans call for a total of 15 on the Bees. Coach Callow has three returning returning around which to build his 57-58 club. Guard Pete Ostrom and a pair of forwards, Art Dalbey and Roger Plier wind out the lettermen contingent.

Players up from a good Bee and JV squad a long with varsity reserves will be down upon to round out the starting five.

The first home game comes on December 10 when the Knights host Amador from Pleasanton.

Football Players Suddenly Become Don Hardwooders

The Acalanes Dons got into earnest basketball practice last Monday when the football players turned out for the hoop game to be added to those who have been practicing for several weeks under the watchful eye of varsity mentor Dan Glines.

Glins is in first year with the Dons and has been hard at work on the basic fundamentals as has Jack Carhart who has gone from varsity football to Bee Basketball.

The Dons have seven returning lettermen. Returnees are Stu Busby, George McMeans, Mack Hancock, Mike Kritscher, John Phair, Dave Bojarsky and Rick Davis, all but Davis have reported.

Davis is waylaid due to an ankle injury in the Las Lomas game. Currently the varsity and Bees have 17 members each as squads were cut earlier in the week following a series of workouts.

The Dons will open December 3 when they play host to the Vallejo Apaches. The Bees open at 3:30.

Ram Reformation of Devils Fails as Both Lock 13-13

In the season's finale for both clubs played at Concord last Friday night the Pleasant Hill Rams came from behind after trailing 13-0 to knot the game at 13 all.

Coach H. T. Fairclough's Mt. Diablo Devils started things off with a bang when they took the ball on their own 35 after the opening kickoff took six plays to put a six on the scoreboard.

THE BIG RUN came as wingback Gary Casey got away for a 38 yard gallop to the Ram 15. Halfback Gary Lindstrom added the finishing touch when he went the distance over left guard. Halfback Rick Niswonger blew the extra point.

The Devils really put the Rams in hot water when they added another seven points in the second quarter on a 59 yard seven play drive. The score came on a pass from quarterback Vaughn Leith to halfback Al Trette. Trette added the 13th point with a conversion kick.

LATE IN THE HALF the Rams got to work when they pulled up their belts and put a 30 yard drive of their own to score.

It took seven plays to go the 30 yards with the score coming on a nine yard pass from quarter Du Buffa to end Warren Millham. Halfback Tom Larscheid netted the extra point with a quick one over tackle.

Diablo held a 18-7 halftime lead and held on until the fourth quarter.

Gael Yearlings Look Sharp Says St. Mary's Coach

With competition for string positions getting keener, Saint Mary's frosh coach Bob Hagler named a pre-season first five to scrimmage the varsity during daily workouts at Moraga. Hagler's charges are rated the most talented group of yearlings ever to wear the red and blue.

Starting at the center position is Los Angelesan Al Claiborne who stretches in at 6'8. The elongated pivot man has been living up to clippings compiled while prepping at Mt. Carmel High.

The other four berths have been pre-empted by Bay Area prepster talent. Former Lowell and Olympic Club ace Tom Meschery of San Francisco has been played opposite surprise starter Jack Leith from Saint Mary's High of Berkeley.

Pairing at the guards are an Oakland duo in Joe Gardere of McElmynolds and Greg Johnston of Bishop O'Dowd.

Pressing the first five into an almost alternating setup are guard Gene Womack of Poly Womack of Poly High, 6'7 Tom Cleary at Center and Albany's Wes Tamm, a 6'5 forward who has been on the sick list for most of the practice season.

Hagler said that any one of the four could start against the Pa-posas at Palo Alto December 3.

Lady Keglers Prepare For Nat. Meet

Forty-two members of the Contra Costa City Womens Bowling Association met recently at Pittsburg Bowl to discuss rules and regulations for the city and state tournaments and to appoint delegates to the state convention.

Lil Hefner, city association secretary, announced that the National Women's Tournament will be held in San Francisco at the Downtown Bowl beginning April 17. All women bowlers in this area were urged to take advantage of this opportunity to take part in a national meet.

Almost 20 years have passed since the last one was held in this section of the state. The team event will be in three class divisions—650, 651-750 and 750 up. Singles and doubles will be scratch. Closing date for entries is February 13.

Delegates who were appointed to the state convention in Modesto will attend a meeting there March 16. The bowling events will begin earlier, March 8. Closing date for entries will be January 15, and fees will be $4 per bowler per event and $1 for all events.

January 18, 19, 25 and 26 are the dates for the city tourney. Entries must be in by January 3 and the cost will be $2.50 plus $1 for all events. The members voted to hold the team event at Pittsburg Bowl and singles and doubles at Antioch Bowl.

After a lengthy discussion on raising funds for the Bowlers' Victory Legion, an organization which contributes sporting equipment and magazines to veterans' hospitals, the meeting was adjourned by president Anne Freitas and refreshments were served by Mrs. Rhoda Bradley, manager of Pittsburg Bowl.

Matadors Open Basketball Play

The hoop season is not very far off from a competitive point of view as far as the Miramonte Matadors are concerned.

Varsity coach Bob Callen and Bee Coach Don Phillips have had close to 60 candidates going through their paces in an attempt to get them ready for next week's opener with DeAnza High of Richmond.

The game is set at 7 starting for the Bees with the varsity game to follow.

Films From Fence Top Prove Referees Correct

Football wound up its 1957 season as far as the local preps are concerned last Friday night. One of the better games was between Acalanes and Las Lomas which went down to the wire before being decided 7-2 in favor of the Dons.

Both scoring plays were based on officials' decisions and drew their share of controversy. Las Lomas scored on a safety when officials ruled the Acalanes halfback Dave Bojarsky caught a Las Lomas pass and took it into the end zone.

LATE IN THE GAME with less than a minute to go — interference was ruled and it gave Acalanes the ball very deep in Las Lomas territory — deep enough so that a quarterback sneak produced a score.

Moving pictures were taken of the game. Monday night the officials looked at the pictures over and over again and concluded that both decisions were correct.

Acalanes viewed the pictures and thought that the safety run was questionable but the interference ruling definitely justified. Las Lomas saw the picture and felt just the opposite — the safety OK but the interference questionable.

It just goes to prove two things — first it depends on what side of the fence you're sitting on and secondly the officials have to make the decision and its has to be final.

ALL COUNTY TEAM selections were made last Tuesday night when the prep grid coaches met and voted position by position.

The selections as always had their surprises — one of which was the fact that champion Pittsburg failed to land a back on the number one club.

Evidently opposing coaches felt that Pitt's success was due in a large part to a superior line.

Here again is a controversial subject and with reason. Coaches working with players are prejudiced in favor of their own. Seldom does one see a coach come away from such a meeting feeling more of his players should not have been selected.

COACHES HAVE the poorest seats in the stadium as far as observing players performance and have to rely for a good part on scouts high in the stands plus what their own player tell them.

The Pleasant Hill Rams wound up the season with three losses and a tie but with a few good breaks would have been in the number one club.

Pittsburg barely edged them 7-6. Las Lomas won in the closing minutes and Diablo tied them. Acalanes played its season's best to win a wild offensive game. It was the Rams best season and have come of age as far as the grid game is concerned.

Splatter Split Hit At Local Bowl

Kays's Coffee Shop second place team in the Tuesday night Women's Handicap League at the Monument Bowl, took all four points from Union Ice Delivery and remained in the second place slot.

The Monument Catering girls dropped three to Martin Brothers, but still hold the lead by three points. Farr's TV and Yellow Cab downed Woodside Builders and Stone's Men's Wear three to one.

Jean Emory of Yellow Cab rolled a 182 for high and Farr's Helen Emerick had a high series of 469.

Helen Gibson of Union Ice got the 6-7 and Woodside's Carol Meyer shot the 8-10.

Tilt of the week will be the Monument Catering-Kays Coffee shop ruel Tuesday night.
